

Cross-sectoral Cooperation

Manuela Graf

Research Associate | Project Scouting Officer

Friedrich Schiller University Jena

Time Machine Organisation

Member of the Board of Directors

Cluster of Cultural Routes

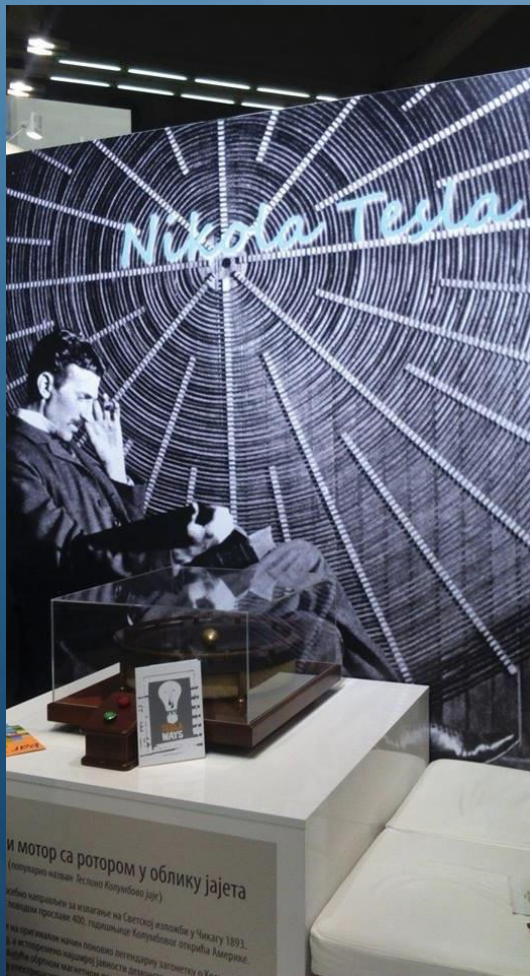

Cross-sectoral Cooperation

Manuela Graf

The Cluster of Cultural Routes links over 50 cultural institutions, tourism organisations, civil society organisations, SMEs and even five universities.

Cross-sectoral Cooperation

Mining Route. The Balkans: Cradle of Metallurgy

DRAGONROUTES

Cross-sectoral Cooperation

Time Machine Organisation

timemachine.eu

- the leading international organisation for cooperation in technology, science and cultural heritage
- Funded as H2020 FET Flagship CSA from 3/2019 to 2/2020

Cross-sectoral Cooperation

Time Machine is formed by...

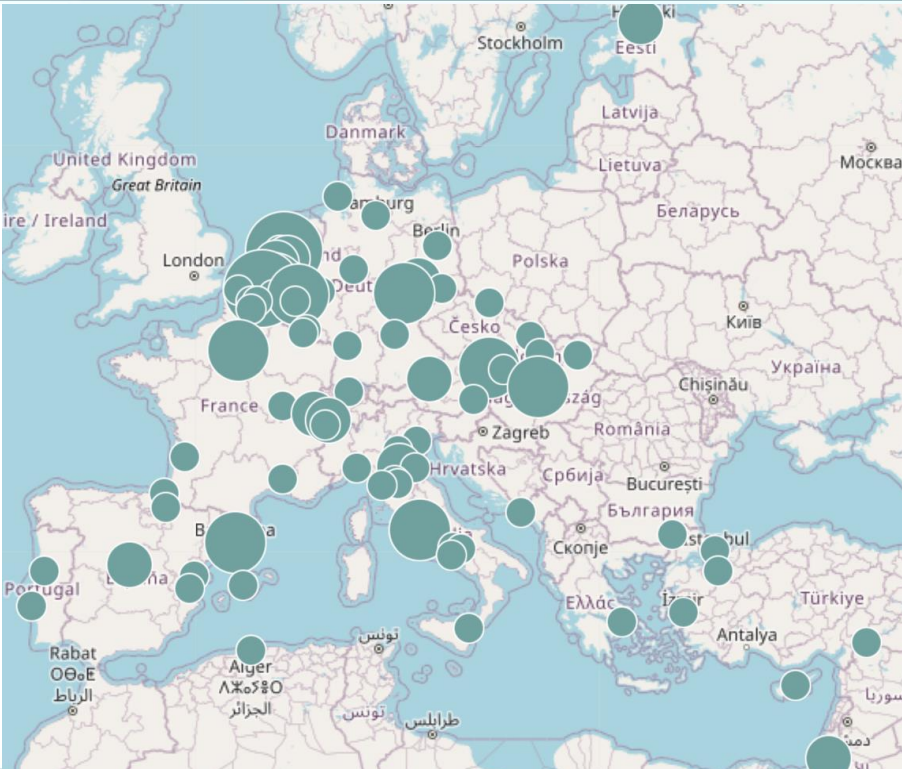

- 200+ of Europe's top academic and research institutions
- 150+ Private sector partners from SMEs to international companies
- 200+ GLAM institutions: 18 national archives, 9 national libraries
- Various civil society and industry associations

Cross-sectoral Cooperation

LOCAL TIME MACHINES

are the representation of the collected Big Data of the Past of a geographic place, created by the sum of information provided by different projects and initiatives connected to this place.

The Interregional Partnership on Virtual and Smart Cultural Tourism (VSCT)

Thuringia/Germany
Lower Austria
Greater Amsterdam
Galicia/Spain

- Cyprus
- Paris/France
- Saxony/Germany
- Basilicata/Italy

57 actors from research, industry, government:

- universities, research and innovation centers, research councils
- tourism and ICT clusters, SMEs, industrial companies, chamber of commerce and industry
- S3 authorities, public administrations, ministries, city councils
- networks

Various end-users from different sectors:

- Archives, tourism agencies-offices, libraries, museums, clusters, SMEs and industry.

Cross-sectoral Cooperation

The European Commission believes that the Smart Specialization Partnership on Virtual and Smart Cultural Tourism has a strategic importance and a strong potential to generate interregional innovation in Europe and has included the network in the representative S3 Platform for Industrial Modernisation.

 www.clustercollaboration.eu

