NATIONAL CLUSTER ASSOCIATION

Who are we as the National Cluster Association?

We connect cluster organisations and technology platforms to defend their needs and develop cluster policy in the Czech Republic.

The National Cluster Association (NCA) is a non-governmental, non-profit organisation that brings together entities and individuals with the goal of coordinated and sustainable development of cluster initiatives and cluster policy development in the Czech Republic based on the concentration of knowledge, experience and expertise to strengthen the Czech competitiveness.

The Czech Republic: A small country in the heart of Europe where clusters play an essential role in the innovation ecosystems
