About the Trade Fair

The 17th annual African Utility Week (AUW) is the only global meeting place, conference and trade exhibition for African power and water utility professionals. AUW offers a unique networking opportunity for engineers, stakeholders and solution providers alike.

The 3-day exhibition means more engagement time between delegates, visitors and exhibitors. A more engaging exhibition floor with product demonstrations, workshops, cocktail receptions, free refreshments and meeting lounges will create business opportunities for our attendees.

If challenges around power generation, T&D, metering, clean energy, finance, reliability, water supply or energy efficiency are keeping you awake at night, AUW will be the right place to find suitable solutions, best practices and case studies from around the world.
