Call for Social Enterprises in Europe

Financial support for training

(SocialTech4EU/2023/Call1:Training)

Deadline: 12 April 2023, 17:00 Brussels Time

This project SocialTech for Europe for Resilient and Responsible Ecosystems - SocialTech4EU is a EU-funded project that aims at strengthening the resilience and innovation capacity, competitiveness, and sustainability of social economy ecosystems and of start-ups and SMEs of the social economy, with a special focus on technology social ventures.

In the framework of the project, a Call for Social Enterprises in Europe - Financial support for training is launched: the Call provides each selected social enterprise with 3.000 Euros for purchasing services related to training in: ICT, emerging technologies for the social economy, open innovation, business administration, marketing and sales.

Applicants can be social enterprises (as defined by the European Commission) or start-ups with a social mission or impact.

Organisations awarded in this Call will be selected for the first of the three phases of the project (training), and thus they will be able to apply for further financial support within the other project phases/calls, which will take place in 2023/2024:

- Innovation: up to 20.000 Euros for each selected SE (up to 20 selected applicants).
- Acceleration: up to 35.000 Euros for each selected SE (up to 10 selected applicants).

The total amount awarded to each SE cannot exceed €60.000.
